Can You Do It?

Directions: Can you avoid using your selected invention for one whole day? You are about to find out! For the next 24 hours, pretend that the your selected item had never been invented. Try to avoid using this invention. In order to record your observations, answer the questions below in complete sentences.

1. Use the space below to keep a tally of how many times you successfully avoided using your invention. Include a description of at least one specific experience.

2. What situations make the invention most difficult (or impossible) to avoid?

3. What alternatives to your invention did you find? (For example, if you couldn't watch TV in your free time, what did you do?)

4. How did others react to your experiment?

5. Revisit your prediction (in #5) on the Invention Observation worksheet. How accurate was your prediction? Use examples and be specific.
